LOT 1415

A French Montreau pottery Sèvres style bronze mounted circular platter, circa 1900, painted with three cherubs in a garden setting, attempting to capture a dove, within a gilt overlaid turquoise glazed rim, the bronze mounts with chinoiserie type decoration of birds and insects amidst blossom trees, flanked by ruyi type handles, raised on Buddhist lion and paw feet, impressed marks to base, total diameter between handles 50cm (minor restoration).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

1415. Two small areas of minor professional restoration to turquoise rim at 12 and 8 o'clock, incredibly well executed. Otherwise the dish and mounts are in good condition overall.
