LOT 1230

A Chinese zitan wood carving, 18th century, carved and pierced to both sides with magnolia branches and leaves, length 21cm. Note: this is a part section of a frieze of an altar table from the Imperial Summer Palace.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1230. It is only a section of frieze with breaks to edges where it was attached but of what we have here it is in generally good order.
