

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 19th April 2018 / Lot 1517

LOT 1517

A T. Smith & Co. silver mounted stoneware jug, circa 1872, the ovoid body incised with blue scale decoration, the wavy reeded cylindrical neck applied with a silver collar and domed hinged lid with pierced thumbpiece, Sheffield 1872 by Atkin Brothers, impressed factory mark to base, height 23cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

1517. Silver mounts including hallmarks are rubbed. Edge of silver cover is ever so slightly misshapen, otherwise in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Mon, 16th April 2018 16:00