

Militaria, Medals and Awards / Wednesday, 18th April 2018 / Lot 810

LOT 810

A group of 10th Princess Mary's Own Gurkha Rifles uniform and regalia, comprising a post-1953 shoulder belt, fitted with a shoulder belt plate, a whistle with triple chain and lion mask boss and with a dispatches pouch, fitted with a badge, a captain's dark green tunic with trousers, a black tunic with a waistcoat and black trousers, a beret, a side cap, two lanyards, a pair of khaki trousers, three boss badges, a cap badge, a pair of collar badges, another badge and further items.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

810. Overall good condition, some light storage soiling, dust marks. Some badges and fittings a little corroded from storage, good condition generally throughout.

810. Please see Lot 845 as these medals belonged to the owner of the uniform, M J Knott .10.G.R.

Created: Tue, 17th April 2018 10:33