

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 20th April 2018 / Lot 2598

LOT 2598

A quantity of mixed collectors' items, including four novelty models of musical instruments, a late 19th century brass and leather mounted flask in the form of a bottle, height 22cm (faults), a cast iron corkscrew in the form of a key, a late 19th century tin nutmeg grater and two late 19th century turned ivory containers of acorn form (faults). Provenance: from the estate of the late Nellie Lenson-Smith (1928-2017).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2598. The ivory acorns appear to be thread dispensers but having nothing inside. One is badly repaired.

Created: Tue, 17th April 2018 16:54