

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 19th April 2018 / Lot 1491

LOT 1491

A Doulton Burslem flask, late 19th century, painted in sepia tones with a scene of Windsor Castle, painted title and monogram 'F.H' to side, brown printed factory mark to base, height 16.5cm, together with a Doulton Burslem 'Royles Patent Self Pouring' teapot, circa 1886, blue printed with stems of flowers, leaves and berries, printed factory mark and painted in iron red '300.120.6s' to base, height 22.5cm (restoration to spout), and a collection of Doulton commemorative china.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1491. Teapot - restored spout. Ewer - good condition, typical light wear and scratches. All other pieces in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. Some with typical light crazing.

Created: Wed, 18th April 2018 15:30