

Objects of Virtù / Friday, 20th April 2018 / Lot 2433

LOT 2433

A 19th century German papier-mâché snuff box lid, probably Stobwasser, finely painted with the portrait of a young girl and her pet cat, the reverse inscribed in red with 'Die Schmeichelkatze', diameter 10cm, later mounted within an ebonized frame. Provenance: from the estate of the late Nellie Lenson-Smith (1928-2017).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2433. A few minor surface scuffs and marks, also some minor surface craquelure. Uninspected out of frame, so cannot be sure if there are any chips to the very edge of the lid.

Created: Thu, 19th April 2018 10:04