

Jewellery / Wednesday, 16th May 2018 / Lot 652

LOT 652

A gold and rose cut diamond set brooch, formed as two pierced scroll shaped oval panels, mounted with foil backed rose cut diamonds, length 5.5cm (probably converted from a pair of early 19th century earrings).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

652. Cut: old mixed cut diamonds. Clarity: approx SI2-I1, faint florescence. Colour: varying dark shades. Carat: very approx 1ct in total. In fair condition commensurate with age: NOTE: the backs of the diamonds are closed and therefore the carat weight is very approximate. Weight 9.7g.

Created: Thu, 10th May 2018 14:40