LOT 663

A rose cut diamond and coloured gem set brooch in a floral and foliate spray design with traces of later blue highlighting, probably second half of the 19th century, width 8.8cm.

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

663. The later blue highlighting to the centre flower is poorly achieved. There is considerable use of lead solder and glue as restoration work visible from the back. The brooch would overall benefit from professional cleaning. Weight 23g.
