

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 16th May 2018 / Lot 385

LOT 385

A late 17th/early 18th century silver nutmeg grater of teardrop form, the hinged lid engraved with initials 'C.A.S.' within an engraved foliate border, opening to reveal the steel grater, the hinged base with similarly engraved foliate border, maker's mark I.C. to side, length 4.2cm.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

---

Condition Report

385. Probably later engraved. Missing tiny section of silver rim which holds grate in place. Maker's mark rubbed. Otherwise in good condition.

Created: Sat, 12th May 2018 09:01