

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 16th May 2018 / Lot 402

LOT 402

A late Victorian silver and enamel novelty vesta case in the form of a woven bag with white enamel name tag, London 1889 by Henry Stuart Brown, length 6cm (faults).

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

402. Missing one handle. Marks quite clear. Lid doesn't shut firmly. Top of bag open at one end and possibly missing an element as three tiny drilled holes, one above enamel tag and two in similar place to other side. Scratches to white enamel.

Created: Sat, 12th May 2018 09:08