

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 16th May 2018 / Lot 400

LOT 400

A Victorian Scottish silver spirit kettle on stand with burner and overhead swing handle, the compressed circular body decorated in relief with baskets of fruit and floral garlands within engraved lattice and scroll borders, raised on a similarly decorated heater stand, Edinburgh 1861 by James McKay, total height 42cm.

Estimate: £600 - £900

Condition Report

400. Total weight 2028g. Overall good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Good clear hallmarks. Please be aware the body has an engraved presentation inscription to one side.

Created: Wed, 16th May 2018 11:23