LOT 1129

A late 20th century lacquered brass cased carriage alarm clock with eight day jewelled movement striking and repeating on a gong, the signed backplate numbered '1781', the dial with silvered chapter ring and black Roman hour numerals framing a rolling moon aperture and inscribed 'Matthew Norman', above subsidiary day, alarm and date dials, the glazed case with swing handle and fluted corner columns, on bun feet, height 19cm (small chip to glazed top panel).

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

1129. Case is in generally good condition but a little dusty. There is a small chip to edge of top glass panel. It is running and chiming, it looks like all features should all work but the date does not move on and seems to be stuck.
