

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 16th May 2018 / Lot 417

LOT 417

A George III silver perfume bottle étui of tapering form, engraved with bands of leaves, the hinged lid revealing a facet cut clear glass perfume bottle and stopper, Birmingham 1801 by Samuel Pemberton, height 5.1cm, together with a George V silver matchbox holder of rhomboid form with engine turned decoration, London 1928 by Mappin & Webb, height 6.2cm, and a plated rectangular box.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

417. Scent bottle case - good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear, and small dent to top of cover. Matchbox case - good condition, good clear marks. Typical minor surface scratches. Rectangular box - good condition, hinge is good. Inset plated button panel to cover.

Created: Mon, 14th May 2018 14:56