

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 18th May 2018 / Lot 2624

LOT 2624

A Regency rosewood and brass inlaid work box of sarcophagus form, the hinged lid enclosing a gilt-tooled leather and yellow silk interior, width 28cm, containing a gold thimble, a mother-of-pearl thimble, a Tunbridge ware waxer, various pin cushions and other sewing implements.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

2624. Two sections of veneer missing on top, section of brass inlay detached and part missing on right side of top. Loss to moulding on bottom corner edge at rear of box. Interior in reasonable condition, containing an assortment of items including three of its four original rosewood feet.

Created: Mon, 14th May 2018 16:26