

Rugs and Carpets / Friday, 18th May 2018 / Lot 2911

LOT 2911

A Shirvan rug, South-east Caucasus, late 19th/early 20th century, the midnight blue field with three linked compartments enclosing hooked medallions, surrounded by a band of polychrome flowerheads, within an ivory and polychrome stylized leaf border, 158cm x 121cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

2911. A few very small areas of minor moth damage to two corners and a few dots throughout the rug. Generally in good order with good overall pile. Loss to much of the fringing.

Created: Tue, 15th May 2018 11:07