

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 13th June 2018 / Lot 302

LOT 302

An early Victorian silver rectangular vinaigrette, engraved with scrolls within a shaped border, the hinged lid revealing a pierced and engraved foliate scroll hinged grille, Birmingham 1844 by Frederick Marson, width 4cm, together with a smaller silver vinaigrette with engraved decoration and pierced hinged grille, Birmingham 1876 by Frederick Marson, width 2.7cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

302. Larger vinaigrette - two small splits to corners of hinge lid, otherwise generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light wear to engraving and inscribed 'Kate' to top. Good clear hallmarks. Grille is good and both hinges good. Small vinaigrette - good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical light wear to engraving. Good clear hallmarks. Gilt grille and hinges in good order.

Created: Wed, 6th June 2018 12:00