

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 13th June 2018 / Lot 365

LOT 365

Two Victorian silver novelty pin cushions, each in the form of a crown, probably to commemorate the Queen's Golden Jubilee in 1887, both London 1886 by Rupert Favell, height 6cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

365. Both in generally good condition. No significant damage or repairs to silver. Good clear hallmarks. Typical light wear and surface scratches. Both velvet centres and bases are worn.

Created: Wed, 6th June 2018 13:07