

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 14th June 2018 / Lot 1484

LOT 1484

A Continental engraved oversize wine glass with opaque twist stem, late 19th century, the conical bowl with an armorial opposing a floral bouquet above a faceted knob and octagonal stem with multi series opaque threads, on a circular foot, height 30cm, together with a similar faceted stem wine glass, height 28cm, and a pewter mounted glass stein, height 19.5cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1484. Engraved glass - tiny nick to rim edge, otherwise some minor and light surface scratches, but generally in good order. Plain glass - minor scratches to bowl, otherwise ok. Stein - missing top section of pewter thumbpiece. Some minor surface scratches.

Created: Wed, 6th June 2018 13:48