LOT 1012

A Chinese Canton export tortoiseshell circular snuff box and cover, mid-19th century, finely carved in relief with village scenes of figures, pavilions and trees, the lid interior with incised inscription 'Capt John McCutcheon, China 1840', diameter 8.3cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1012. Overall in good condition. The cover in good order with no significant damage or repairs, but there is a small hairline visible to the interior just below '1840'. Base also in good order but does have one tiny chip to outer rim and a small section of rim chipped off (approx 1.7cm long), none of which is immediately noticeable.
