

Jewellery / Wednesday, 13th June 2018 / Lot 608

LOT 608

A gold, carved banded agate and half-pearl set mourning bar brooch, the centre with a forget-me-not motif within a surround of half-pearls, detailed '9ct & P.A.', fitted with a safety chain, width 5cm, with a box.

Estimate: £40 - £60

---

Condition Report

608. The central pearl and agate motif is associated with the bar. Around the edge of the central motif there are three pierced holes. It has probably previously been mounted at the centre of an early Victorian brooch and is now later mounted in association with the bar. The pearls have an attractive silvery lustre but are also a little dirty. Weight 4.2g.

Created: Thu, 7th June 2018 12:16