LOT 1078

A Chinese Canton famille rose porcelain bottle vase, mid/late 19th century, the body painted with panels of figures, birds and flowers, reserved against a gilt ground filled with flowers and scrolling tendrils, height 35cm (converted to a table lamp with brass mounts).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1078. Converted to a table lamp so mounts to top of neck and foot, consequently cannot inspect these areas fully but they would seem to be in good order. Drilled hole to side of vase near base to accommodate electrical cable has chipping around it. Typical wear predominantly to gilding of neck.
