

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 14th June 2018 / Lot 1515

LOT 1515

A pair of Chelsea porcelain red anchor period plates, circa 1752-58, painted with sprays and sprigs of Deutsche Blumen within lobed chocolate brown edged rims, painted red anchor mark to each base, diameter 23cm (chips to rims).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1515. Both plates in generally good condition, with light surface scratches. One plate has two rim chips approx 5cm apart situated above the largest floral spray. There is another wider chip almost on the opposite side of the plate too. There is also a firing crack to the underside by the inner footrim. The other plate also has a chip to the rim.

Created: Wed, 13th June 2018 08:52