

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 14th June 2018 / Lot 1453

LOT 1453

A near pair of Bohemian ruby glass table lustres, late 19th century, each circular top with petal rim, on a tapering stem and circular foot, hung with clear cut glass spear drops, heights 26cm and 27cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1453. Both lustres in generally good condition, both with a couple of chips to petal rims and heavy wear and losses to gilt decoration. One with minute nibble to footrim.

Created: Wed, 13th June 2018 08:59