

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 14th June 2018 / Lot 1412

LOT 1412

A Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester porcelain campana shaped vase, 1813-40, gilt and enamelled to each side with the arms of the British East India Company within pink borders edged with pink roses, raised on a spreading foot and square base, impressed mark to base, height 19.5cm (restored).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1412. Both handles restored and re-gilded, small section of rim restored. Base has also been re-gilded and chips to two corners of base. Surface scratches and some wear. Decoration to body is generally good.

Created: Wed, 13th June 2018 15:11