

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 15th June 2018 / Lot 2533

LOT 2533

A large late 19th/early 20th century Swiss automaton singing bird, perched within a gilt painted wirework cage, raised on a flared giltwood base with shell and foliate moulded band, on turned feet, height 54cm. Provenance: Christie's South Kensington, Mechanical Music, Tools and Technical Apparatus sale, 16 April 1998, Lot 170.

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

---

Condition Report

2533. In working order but please be aware we give no guarantee to working order or reliability of any item purchased from us.

Created: Thu, 14th June 2018 10:47