LOT 2074

Two 19th century ash and elm Windsor armchairs with pierced splat and spindle backs, one raised on turned legs united by a crinoline stretcher, heights 106cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2074. The straight-armed chair has a few minor repairs to the arm joints and some chips and wear to tips of legs. The curved-armed chair has some repairs to the bow back and also has a series of old holes and marks to seat where a padded cover must have been pinned to the seat.
