

Jewellery / Wednesday, 11th July 2018 / Lot 640

LOT 640

A Jean Michel Schlumberger Tiffany & Co gold, demantoid garnet, sapphire and enameled brooch, designed as an exotic fish, the body mounted with circular cut demantoid garnets and sapphires, each eye set with a cabochon sapphire, the mouth grasping an enameled simulated branch coral, the hinge detailed 'Tiffany Schlumberger', the pin detailed '585', length 6cm. Note: Jean Michel Schlumberger designed for Tiffany & Co from 1956 to the late 1970s and became a vice-president of the company. His clients included Gloria Vanderbilt, Elizabeth Taylor, the Duchess of Windsor and Audrey Hepburn.

Estimate: £8,000 - £12,000

Condition Report

640. The coral in the mouth of the fish is chipped at two ends of the branches and at one end near to the mouth. The sapphires are of medium to pale colour saturation, with slight colour variation. The demantoid garnets have one or two surface reaching inclusions, with some variation in colour saturation. The pin rivets to the end of the tail are rather loose. Weight 25.2g.

Created: Thu, 5th July 2018 10:58