

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 12th July 2018 / Lot 1415

LOT 1415

A Royal Worcester bone china figure 'The Winner', circa 1959, modelled by Doris Lindner as a horse and jockey wearing the Queen's colours, raised on a naturalistic oval base, height 25.5cm, with a wooden plinth (right ear glued).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1415. Horse's right ear visibly re-glued. Otherwise in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Thu, 5th July 2018 12:36