

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 12th July 2018 / Lot 1541

LOT 1541

A Moorcroft pottery vase, circa 1916, the tapering body decorated with the Revived Cornflower design, impressed marks and green painted William Moorcroft signature to base, height 32cm (restoration).

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1541. The circumference of the neck has been professionally restored, reaching approx 5cm vertically into the body of the vase at its deepest points. There is also an area of professional restoration to the main body of the vase, reaching from the footrim about three-quarters of the way up the vase, primarily over half of one flowerhead. Typical crazing to the glaze.

Created: Thu, 5th July 2018 13:22