

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 12th July 2018 / Lot 1445

LOT 1445

A French bisque porcelain Meissen style figural sweetmeat dish, late 19th century, modelled with a recumbent gallant holding an oval basket, on a scroll moulded base, length 34cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

1445. index finger on right hand has broken and is missing. Right side of tied hair ribbon at back of head is broken and is missing. Long and dark surface marks to interior of bowl which are quite noticeable. Couple of small chips to tip of left shoe and a couple to underside rim edge of base. Overall there are some losses to gilt decoration on the rims and a few dirt filled firing cracks to the body.

Created: Thu, 5th July 2018 16:26