LOT 2801

An early 20th century silkwork panel, finely worked as a woven basket of summer flowers in coloured silks, on a cream silk ground, 65cm x 85cm, within an ebonized and gilt section frame.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

2801. The silkwork itself is in really good order, having just a few very minor pulled threads and retaining good bright colours. The silk ground is a bit scuffed in a few areas and has some areas of minor surface staining to lower corners. Please note the typed piece of paper that relates to the provenance.
