

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 12th July 2018 / Lot 1616

LOT 1616

A silver mounted cameo glass scent bottle with stopper and hinged lid, dated 1884, in the manner of Thomas Webb, the cranberry red body of circular shape, overlaid in white and carved with flowering stems, Chester hallmarks by Horton & Allday, length 7cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1616. The stopper is original and removable with some minute nicks to the top. The silver lid has some minor dents and an open horizontal seam. Clear hallmarks. Small chip to one leaf near base and minute nick to tip of another leaf. In good order overall.

Created: Mon, 9th July 2018 12:44