

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 12th July 2018 / Lot 1402

LOT 1402

Two pieces of Royal Worcester porcelain painted with pheasants by Jas. Stinton, signed, the first an oval pin dish with fluted rim, circa 1924, length 11.5cm, the second a small circular footed bowl, circa 1935, diameter 10.8cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1402. Oval pin dish - in generally good condition with overall light crazing, no chips, cracks or repairs. Circular footed bowl - in good condition. Very light surface scratch to left of pheasants, but this is only noticeable in certain light. Otherwise no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Tue, 10th July 2018 11:32