

Objects of Virtù / Friday, 13th July 2018 / Lot 2412

LOT 2412

An 18th century ivory and gold mounted canted rectangular snuff box, the cover finely engraved with the scene of a tribal execution within an inlaid pin head strapwork border, incorporating a double portrait of a European couple, the base with a coloured engraving of a native man, bird and palm tree, length 8.6cm.

Estimate: £600 - £800

Condition Report

2412. Overall good condition. No significant damage or repair. 5cm crack to top panel in upper right corner and a 7mm crack to right side upright, neither crack of any real consequence. Typical light wear and surface scratches. Decoration is good and pin head inlay all present.

Created: Tue, 10th July 2018 12:06