

Objects of Virtù / Friday, 13th July 2018 / Lot 2421

LOT 2421

An early 19th century French gold and enamelled novelty pocket corkscrew, the screw-off handle revealing a steel worm, fitted with a length of chain, length 9cm, within its original red leather case (faults).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

2421. Barrel of the key has extensive loss to the grey enamel. Also further loss to enamel on the key fret. Total weight 21.2g. Red leather case is a bit tatty, split to one side of hinge and missing a small side section of the lid.

Created: Tue, 10th July 2018 12:08