

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 12th July 2018 / Lot 1469

LOT 1469

A Royal Crown Derby pink ground vase and cover, circa 1892, the shield shaped body gilded and silvered with flowers between moulded foliate borders and gilt edging, the cover with pierced gilt finial, green printed factory marks and red painted numerals '3244/550/A', height 23cm.

Estimate: £500 - £700

Condition Report

1469. In generally good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. There is a small area of gilding loss to the front on the shoulder and minor wear to the lid rim edge. Couple of tiny losses to pink ground on one side, but these are only noticeable on close inspection.

Created: Tue, 10th July 2018 13:06