

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 8th August 2018 / Lot 355

LOT 355

A pair of mid-18th century Irish provincial silver sauce boats, each with foliate capped flying scroll handle, on scallop shell shouldered legs and matching feet, Cork maker's mark for George Holder, length 19cm.

Estimate: £2,200 - £3,200

---

Condition Report

355. Total weight 559g. Both in generally good condition with typical wear and surface scratches commensurate with age. Sauce boat 1 - with small repair to rim where it meets the handle. One other small tear to rim (4mm long). One foot slightly pushed up into the body and another has had a very small repair. Small dents to body. Slight rubbing to marks to underside but still readable. Sauce boat 2 - small repair to rim where it meets handle and small tear to rim (3mm long). Typical minor dents to body. Slight rubbing to marks but still readable.

Created: Mon, 6th August 2018 10:27