

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 8th August 2018 / Lot 450

LOT 450

A Victorian brass mounted coromandel vanity box, fitted with silver mounted glass bottles, jars and rectangular boxes, London 1871 by George Betjemann & Sons, together with various accoutrements, above a single drawer to the front and side, width 31cm.

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

Condition Report

450. Minor losses, scratches and wear to coromandel veneer, otherwise in good order. One cylindrical glass jar has a small impact hole to base and two scent bottles have broken necks, otherwise glass and silver tops in good condition.

Created: Mon, 6th August 2018 13:51