

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 8th August 2018 / Lot 420

LOT 420

A late 19th century Russian silver icon lamp, 84 zolotnik, the cylindrical body engraved with a Cyrillic inscription beneath a pierced and beaded rim, applied with three pierced scrollwork flanges, fitted with cross and oval link chains suspended from a matching hanging fitting, Moscow 1882, master's mark of Andrei Alexandrov, total height 89cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

420. Overall generally good condition. There is however some damage and repair to to pierced paron below the cylindrical body. Good clear hallmarks. Weight 811g.

Created: Mon, 6th August 2018 13:53