

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 8th August 2018 / Lot 306

LOT 306

A George III silver wine funnel, the pierced bowl with beaded rim and applied hook, fitted with a tapering spout, London 1784 with incuse duty mark by I.C., length 11cm.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

306. Small dents to sides of bowl and engraved initial 'R', otherwise bowl is in generally good order. Good clear hallmark to rim and part mark to spout rim. Spout terminal is slightly bent and misshapen. Weight 83g.

Created: Mon, 6th August 2018 15:58