

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 9th August 2018 / Lot 1175

LOT 1175

A Chinese cloisonné enamel quail censer and cover, Qianlong period, modelled in the form of a standing quail, the wings forming the detachable cover, decorated with blue and polychrome plumage, on a gilt rectangular pierced stand with scroll feet, height 17.2cm, together with a similar smaller quail censer, height 12.5cm and a Chinese cloisonné two section spittoon, 19th century, the globular body and flared neck decorated with precious objects and vessels on a turquoise ground, height 9.9cm (some faults).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1175. Quail on stand - wing cover has some damage and loss to enamels on one side and signs of repair to interior. The rest of the censer is in generally good condition with typical light wear. Black quail - has damage and loss to enamel on wings and head with some repair and misshaping to legs. Spittoon - in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Tue, 7th August 2018 14:22