LOT 1134

A pair of Japanese brown patinated bronze vases, Meiji/Taisho period, each shouldered tapering body decorated in relief with a toad walking a tightrope above two seated toad musicians, incised three character mark to bases, height 28.3cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1134. Both vases in generally good condition. Typical light wear and surface scratches to patina. Both a little dirty and dusty, so would benefit from a clean. One has a very small dent to the body. Both footrims have very small sections cut/broken out - one 1cm long, the other 0.5cm long. Both signed to base.
