

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 9th August 2018 / Lot 1224

LOT 1224

A Chinese Canton export lacquer folding fan, late 19th century, the guards and eighteen sticks decorated with gilt birds, fish and flowers on a black ground, the paper panel painted with birds and blossoming branches, length 29.8cm, with a lacquer case, the hinged lid with gilt figural decoration, together with a Canton carved sandalwood and feather fan, length 30cm, a Canton ivory brisé fan, length 21.8cm, and a French ivory folding fan, length 28cm (some faults).

Estimate: £100 - £200

---

Condition Report

1224. Lacquer fan - paper panel has numerous tears to creases and some minor losses. Otherwise lacquer in generally good order. Case is generally ok but hinge is loose, some wear to gilt and typical nicks and knocks. Canton ivory fan - one stick is broken into two, otherwise in generally good order. Ribbon is broken. French ivory fan - in poor condition with damage to sticks and panel. Sandalwood and feather fan - one stick broken, otherwise good condition. Some loss to feathers. Wood fan box - good condition. All other cases in fair condition with typical scuffs, wear.

Created: Tue, 7th August 2018 15:18