

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 10th August 2018 / Lot 2619

LOT 2619

A group of 19th century Coade type moulded composition stone architectural elements, comprising a set of five acanthus leaf scroll brackets, length 44cm, height 31cm, a Corinthian capital, another curved bracket, a rosette mount and a matching lintel, length 73cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

---

Condition Report

2619. The flowerhead has a fairly substantial chipped edge. The Corinthian capital has some chips to the left front corner. The faces of the brackets are all in fair condition with a few minor chips to the corners and edges. Overall weathered surfaces.

Created: Tue, 7th August 2018 16:41