LOT 2183

A 17th century provincial oak chest, the hinged lid above a pair of panel doors and two drawers, on block legs, height 87cm, width 99cm, depth 57cm (alterations).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

2183. The moulded edge to the hinged top has a few replaced sections and a chip along the rear left edge. The panelled doors has later ball catches and the front has had later brassware fitted. There are a few repairs throughout and some chips to the edges and corners. Colour and patina is ok but needs a bit of work.
