LOT 564

A pair of Victorian gold mounted coral pendant earrings, each with an oval carved coral cameo surmount above a faceted coral drop, the later screw fittings detailed '15ct', length 5.5cm, with a case.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

564. The coral cameos are rather worn. The original hook fittings are lacking. The faceting to the drops is a bit rubbed. There is variation of colour and proportions both to the cameo tops and to the coral drops, however when worn this would cease to be apparent. The bottom block of the inside of the case is missing and is not original to the earrings.
