

Art Pottery / Friday, 7th September 2018 / Lot 4099

LOT 4099

A Bernard Moore flambé glazed bottle vase, early 20th century, the aubergine body with speckled green detailing, decorated with a continuous turquoise and gilt fleur-de-lys motif, painted factory mark and incised '1083' to base, height 24.3cm.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

4099. There is a fine haircrack running around half the inner circumference of the footrim and an indistinct small haircrack to the edge of the foot. The main body of the vase has significant scratches primarily to the widest part and the neck rim. Otherwise typical overall light wear. No restoration or chips.

Created: Thu, 30th August 2018 12:21