LOT 4065

A late 19th/early 20th century Arts and Crafts Glasgow School brass framed hanging hall lantern, the sides inset with stained and leaded glass panels, height 60cm (converted to electricity).

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

4065. Glass panels are in good condition with some minor misshaping to leaded edges. The brass surfaces are slightly oxidized in places and the top foliate mount is slightly dented and misshapen. Otherwise fairly good order.
