

Arts and Crafts Metalwork and Applied Art / Friday, 7th September 2018 / Lot 4072

LOT 4072

An Irish Arts and Crafts style silver two-handled cup, modelled in the manner of the Ardagh chalice, the circular bowl and stem decorated with bands of Celtic knot strapwork, the sides with two shaped handles, Dublin 1916 by T. Weir & Sons, height 10cm, width 18cm.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

4072. Overall minor surface wear and scratches. A few small indentations to the rim and footrim. One of the circular cabochons on the horizontal band has a loss of definition, supposedly through wear. Very minor wear to marks. No removed inscriptions.

Created: Thu, 30th August 2018 15:08